

2019 PEAK Award Honouree
Annalisa King – Significant Board Contribution presented by

The Association of Women in Finance is proud to honour Annalisa King with the 2019 PEAK Award in the category of Significant Board Contribution.

Annalisa is the Chair of the Governance Committee for the Vancouver Airport Authority and sits on three TSX-listed company boards, Saputo Inc., First Capital Realty Inc., and The North West Company Inc., as well as a private board, the Templeton Designer Outlet Centre Partnership. In her capacity as board member, Annalisa contributes to the audit committees and two HR committees on her public boards.

From 2008 to 2016, Annalisa was the Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Best Buy Canada Ltd., where she led the Finance and Accounting departments and oversaw the Information Technology, Ecommerce Technology, Data Security, Legal and Real Estate functions. An integral part of the development of Best Buy Canada's strategic plans, she provided guidance aimed at the achievement of the company's vision and goals. Prior to joining Best Buy Canada Ltd., Annalisa was the Senior Vice President of Business Transformation for Maple Leaf Foods in Toronto, and prior to that, the Vice President of Finance for Maple Leaf Foods.

Annalisa is committed to helping others achieve success in their board careers – particularly women. She contributes to the education of directors through education and knowledge sharing, including serving as director in residence for the ICD Strategy Oversight course in Vancouver. Annalisa is an active member of the BC ICD chapter, moderating, and participating as a panelist on several occasions, and being an examiner for the Directors Education Program. She is also a BC ambassador for the Women Get on Board program.

Recognized in 2012 as the British Columbia CFO of the Year by Business in Vancouver, Annalisa King is one of Canada's most respected senior business executives. She was inducted into the Canada's Most Powerful Women: Top 100 Hall of Fame™ in 2010. Her dedication to leadership has earned her a reputation as a dynamic business thought-leader in the areas of corporate finance and business transformation.

Please join us to celebrate Annalisa's achievements at the PEAK Awards Gala on May 15, 2019.

Congratulations, Annalisa!
