

supported by

2022 PEAK Award Honouree

Aanu Adeleye – Rising Star

Aanu Adeleye is a Senior Manager in KPMG's Enterprise Audit practice, she is based in Vancouver and has over 12 years of experience servicing clients in the public sector which includes advanced education, local governments, education (K-12), and not-for-profit organizations. She serves a critical role in all her client responsibilities with her proven track record of excellent client service, ability to manage teams, and delivery on deadlines. Prior to joining the KPMG Enterprise practice in Canada, Aanu was a part of KPMG's Chicago public sector practice group servicing clients within various industries.

She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting, as well as a Master of Business Administration from St. John's University, New York, and she holds a designation as a Certified Public Accountant and is the current Treasurer for Mothers Matter Centre, a centre that focuses on providing programs to mothers who wish to break the intergenerational cycle of poverty, low literacy, and social isolation in families. She is also a Director on the Board of the Minerva Foundation for BC Women. Minerva BC provides leadership development programs for women, girls, and partners with organizations to advance gender parity in British Columbia. Aanu lives in Langley, British Columbia with her husband and two daughters, and her interests include traveling, community development, and recreational sports.

Please join us in celebrating Aanu's achievements. Congratulations, Aanu!