

Supported by

2022 PEAK Award Honouree
Julia Kim – Lifetime Achievement

Julia Kim retired in 2017 from a highly successful career in investment counselling that spanned over 21 years. At the time of her retirement, she held the position of Vice President & Investment Counsellor at RBC Phillips, Hager & North Investment Counsel.

Julia joined Phillips, Hager & North Investment Management Ltd. in 1996 and became a partner in 1999. During the 21 years she worked with the firm, she provided investment counselling and individualized investment management services to countless private clients and not-for-profit clients. Prior to that, Julia worked as a private banker for RBC.

Julia graduated from the University of Calgary with a Bachelor of Commerce degree, and received her Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation in 1997. In 2019 she completed a yearlong fellowship through Harvard University's Advanced Leadership Initiative, which helps leaders develop the skills to tackle new challenges in the social sector.

Julia has a long history of volunteering in the community. Her current volunteer work includes serving as a board member of the BC Children's Hospital Foundation and Mothers Matter Centre. She is the Chair Emerita for SFU Board of Governors, past chair of the Minerva Foundation and International Women's Forum BC. She also served on the board for the Vancouver Opera, YWCA Vancouver and Family Services of Greater Vancouver.

Please join us in celebrating Julia's accomplishments. Congratulations, Julia!