Grace Chiu

Senior Manager,
Scotia Wealth Management
Scotiabank

Widely recognized as a “force for growth and good,” Grace Chiu currently serves as Senior Manager, Total Wealth Solutions as part of Scotia Wealth Management and the BC & Yukon Regional Leadership Team in a previous role as Senior Manager, Regional Marketing at Scotiabank. With over 15 years of experience across non-profit and private sectors, she offers a unique blend of strategic vision, collaborative expertise and results focused business acumen, playing an important leadership role within each organization, she has the privilege to work with and for.

Blending strategic vision with deep community commitment, she is shaping inclusive practices and catalyzing lasting, progressive change across the region. Affectionately known as “Amazing Grace,” she is lauded for her ability to navigate complex challenges and unite people around shared purposes. Her efforts have been recognized most recently with a 2024 Business in Vancouver Forty under 40 Award and 2025 Women’s Executive Network Canada’s Top 100 Most Powerful Women Award.

A lifelong volunteer—beginning with community policing shifts alongside her mother and student council community liaison—over the years Grace has contributed to such organizations as Canuck Place Children’s Hospice, the Canadian Cancer Society, BC Children’s Hospital, and the Vancouver Chinatown Foundation. Today, she lends her leadership expertise with a position on the Board of the Elizabeth Fry Society of Greater Vancouver and is a founding committee member of the First Nations Health Foundation Gala.

Through her many professional and volunteer contributions, Grace continues to lead with empathy, courage, and conviction, all while embracing her newest role: mom to baby Hannah.
