

Rowe School of Business
Dalhousie University
Lecturer or Assistant Professor of Accounting

The Rowe School of Business invites applications for a ten-month limited-term appointment in Accounting at the rank of Lecturer or Assistant Professor commencing August 1, 2018.

The successful candidate will be expected to teach undergraduate courses in the accounting area, and will also be expected to contribute to the academic life of the School.

Necessary qualifications, experience and skills

- Earned Canadian CPA accounting designation in good standing
- Experience teaching financial and managerial accounting courses at the university level; preference given to a candidate with experience teaching one or more of the senior level electives that constitute an accounting major in the undergraduate program
- Experience using technology to enhance the learning experience
- Evidence of teaching effectiveness at the university level as demonstrated through student evaluations of instructor
- Demonstrated potential to contribute to the Faculty's mission through administrative service
- Record of engagement in management education through activity in conferences or professional organizations;
- Ability to meet the School's accrediting body's (AACSB) qualification requirements, either through academic qualifications (PhD or equivalent in a related field) or professional qualifications (substantive and current professional background and experience).

The Rowe School of Business is part of the Faculty of Management, which has a unique commitment to values-based management and interdisciplinary research and learning. Thus, the successful candidate may have opportunities to work with like-minded colleagues in the sister Schools of Public Administration, Information Management, and Resource and Environmental Studies within the Faculty.

Information about the Rowe School of Business and its programs may be found at <http://www.dal.ca/faculty/management/rsb.html>.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Dalhousie University is committed to fostering a collegial culture grounded in diversity and inclusiveness. The university encourages applications from Aboriginal people, persons with a disability, racially visible persons, women, persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, and all candidates who would contribute to the diversity of our community.

Applicants should submit a C.V., copies of all previous teaching evaluations, and a statement of their teaching philosophy. Applications must also include a completed Self-Identification Questionnaire, which is available at www.dal.ca/becounted/selfid. Applications should be sent to Ms. Viola Caume at viola.caume@dal.ca or Room 4110, Kenneth C. Rowe Management Building, Dalhousie University, 6100 University Avenue, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada B3H 4R2 no later than May 7, 2018. (Electronic applications are preferred.)